Christchurch City Three Year Plan
Christchurch Ōtautahi

Councillors

How the Council works

Elected members

Christchurch residents and ratepayers are represented by the 14-member Christchurch City Council and eight Community Boards. Elections are held every three years to select Councillors and Community Board Members.

Council

The Mayor and 13 Councillors run the city and ensure that the needs of its residents are met. They plan the way forward and are accountable for delivering what the community has identified as necessary for its cultural, economic, environmental and social well-being.

Community Boards

At a local level, the eight Community Boards represent and act as advocates for the interests of their communities. Community Board Members advise the Council on local needs, community views, and how Council proposals will affect their communities. The community boards are:

- Burwood/Pegasus
- Fendalton/Waimairi
- Hagley/Ferrymead
- Riccarton/Wigram
- Shirley/Papanui
- Spreydon/Heathcote
- Akaroa/Wairewa
- Lyttelton/Mt Herbert

The Council organisation

The Council is responsible for employing the Chief Executive – the only member of staff who reports directly to elected members. The Chief Executive employs all other staff at the Council.

Council structure

Council activities and services are assigned to one of eight business groups, each headed by a General Manager. These groups are:

- Capital Programme
- City Environment
- Community Services
- Corporate Services
- Human Resources
- Public Affairs
- Regulation and Democracy Services
- Strategy and Planning

Within these groups, various units provide specific services to the community and to the Council itself. The services and activities provided by the Council are wide and varied, from rubbish collection, roads and water, to the Botanic Gardens, the Christchurch Art Gallery, city libraries, and festivals and events.
