

Chapter 17 Rural

17.1 Objectives and Policies

17.1.1 Objective 1 - A productive and diverse rural environment

- a. Christchurch District has a productive and diverse rural environment where:
  - i. the range of activities supports and maintains the rural working environment, including the potential productive capacity of the land;
  - ii. subdivision and development does not create reverse sensitivity effects on rural activities, strategic infrastructure, access to high quality gravel resources and natural hazard mitigation works; and
  - iii. rural character is maintained and enhanced, including the distinctive character of Banks Peninsula and the Port Hills.

17.1.1.1 Policy 1 - Rural activities

- a. Ensure the range of activities located on rural land is limited to those that have a:
  - i. direct relationship with, or are dependent on, the natural resource, natural features or the rural activity; or
  - ii. functional necessity for a rural location.

17.1.1.2 Policy 2 - General elements of rural character and amenity

- a. Ensure the nature, scale and intensity of subdivision, use and development in all rural areas is characterised by:
  - i. land in pasture, trees, crops or indigenous vegetation;
  - ii. a low density of buildings and structures with a high ratio of openness to built form; and
  - iii. a general absence of urban scale or type of infrastructure.

17.1.1.3 Policy 3 - Function of rural areas

- a. Recognise the different natural and physical resources, character and amenity values of rural land in Christchurch District including:
  - i. the dominance of the rural working environment on Banks Peninsula and its integration with maintenance of landscape and biodiversity values;
  - ii. the rural productive, quarrying and recreation activities in the rural flat land area surrounding the main Christchurch urban area;
  - iii. the flood management and groundwater recharge functions adjoining the Waimakariri River;
  - iv. the open character and natural appearance of the Port Hills facing the Christchurch main urban area reinforcing a distinct urban boundary; and
  - v. the re-use of the site of the former Templeton Hospital.

17.1.1.4 Policy 4 - Scale and intensity of rural related activities

- a. Ensure rural-related activities establishing on rural land:
  - i. are of a scale and intensity, including the built form, hours of operation and traffic generated, that is compatible with rural character and amenity values;

The Proposed Christchurch Replacement District Plan

- ii. will not trigger demand or expectation for any unplanned upgrade or extension to existing infrastructure, including the roading network;
- iii. avoid, remedy or mitigate adverse effects on the natural environment; and
- iv. support the ability for rural activities to continue to operate.

17.1.1.5 Policy 5 - Density and distribution of rural dwellings

The Proposed Christchurch Replacement District Plan

- a. Ensure a density and distribution of rural dwellings that will:
  - i. retain a rural working environment;
  - ii. support a consolidated urban form and rural settlements;
  - iii. encourage retention of larger sites;
  - iv. prioritise the use of existing sites or amalgamation of multiple small sites;
  - v. avoid creating new sites less than 4ha in the Rural Urban Fringe Zone;
  - vi. enable use of existing sites less than 4ha for rural dwellings in the Rural Urban Fringe Zone where it will not result in large lot/rural residential development;
  - vii. avoid the expectation of land use change of rural land to urban activities or for large-lot/rural residential development; and
  - viii. retain a low density of built form with a high degree of openness appropriate to the zone.

17.1.1.6 Policy 6 - Rural Banks Peninsula

- a. Ensure that subdivision, use and development in the Rural Banks Peninsula Zone recognises, maintains, and where practicable enhances the quality of the rural working environment by:
  - i. restricting the scale, location and reflectivity of buildings to maintain a low density of built form that is not visually dominant and does not detract from views of natural landforms and features.

17.1.1.7 Policy 7 - Intensive farming

- a. Ensure new intensive farming activities avoid adverse effects on rural amenity by not establishing in locations that are in close proximity to residential zones.

17.1.1.8 Policy 8 - Plantation forestry

- a. Ensure new plantation forestry is located and managed to:
  - i. avoid fire risk to nearby residential activities and urban areas;
  - ii. maintain the open rural character and high visual amenity of the Port Hills facing the Christchurch main urban area; and
  - iii. maintain the natural landforms and features on Banks Peninsula.

17.1.1.9 Policy 9 - Separation distances between rural dwellings and rural activities

- a. Ensure the design and location of new buildings for rural dwellings achieve adequate separation distances or adopt other on-site mitigation methods including acoustic insulation, to mitigate potential reverse sensitivity effects with lawfully established rural activities, quarrying activities or strategic infrastructure.

17.1.1.10 Policy 10 - Catchment management approach for rural land

- a. Encourage integrated subdivision and development on rural land at a catchment level that maximises the degree of openness, protects productive potential and enables biodiversity enhancement or recreation opportunities while avoiding, remedying or mitigating adverse effects on the rural environment.

17.1.1.11 Policy 11 - Location and management of quarrying activities

- a. Enable access to locally sourced aggregate resources to provide for the recovery and growth needs of the District by:
  - i. providing for the continuation of quarrying activities in the Rural Quarry Zone until 2031; and
  - ii. providing for new quarrying activities in rural zones other than the Rural Quarry Zone only where the activity:
    - A avoids areas identified for their outstanding or significant landscape, ecological, cultural or heritage value;
    - B avoids locating in close proximity to residential zones;
    - C internalises adverse environmental effects as far as practicable using industry best practice and management plans;
    - D manages dust, noise, vibration, access and lighting to maintain rural amenity values;
    - E protects groundwater from the effects of filling and the use and storage of hazardous substances;
    - F ensures the siting and scale of buildings and visual screening maintains rural amenity and character; and
    - G is capable of processing extracted materials on-site or on another site where this would not extend the life of another quarry.

17.1.1.12 Policy 12 - Rehabilitation of quarry sites

- a. Ensure quarry sites are remediated to enable subsequent use of the land for rural activities; and
- b. Ensure the final rehabilitated landform is appropriate having particular regard to:
  - i. the location, gradient and depth of excavation;
  - ii. the availability of clean fill material and consequent timeframes for rehabilitation; and

The Proposed Christchurch Replacement District Plan

- iii. any other adverse effects associated with rehabilitation including traffic, dust, drainage and landscape effects.

17.1.1.13 Policy 13 - High quality gravel resource overlay

- a. Avoid subdivision and rural dwellings on sites less than 4ha in the high quality gravel resource overlay that may:
  - i. foreclose the ability to extract gravel resources; and/or
  - ii. increase the likelihood of reverse sensitivity effects on quarrying and associated activities.

17.2 Rules - Rural Banks Peninsula Zone

17.8 Matters of Discretion

17.8.1 Matters of Discretion for Built Form Standards

17.8.1.1 Building height

- a. The extent to which an increase in building height and the potential resultant scale and bulk of the building:
  - i. maintains rural character and amenity values;
  - ii. is visually mitigated through the topography, location, design and appearance of the building;
  - iii. enables more efficient use of the site or the functional needs of the building to be met; and
  - iv. is compatible with the scale, proportion and context of buildings and activities in the surrounding area.

17.8.1.2 Setbacks from road boundaries

- a. Whether the reduced setback would result in buildings and/or outdoor storage area that remain compatible with the open rural character and amenity values taking into account:
  - i. the necessity to enable more efficient or practical use of the remainder of the site or the long term protection of significant trees, listed heritage buildings or natural features on the site;
  - ii. the visual effects of the building and/or outdoor storage area on the appearance of the site as viewed from the road, including the layout and scale of other buildings and sites in the vicinity, and the location of existing buildings on site; and
  - iii. the degree to which the topography, location, design and appearance of the building mitigates the visual effects of the reduced setback.

17.8.1.3 Shading of state highway

- a. The extent to which vegetation including, trees, shelter-belts or forestry being planted will cause unreasonable shading to the adjoining road in frost and snow-prone areas.
- b. The extent to which the location, orientation, species and maximum height of the proposed tree(s) will result in shading of the carriageway and a potential for icing which could endanger the safety of motorists.

17.8.1.4 Building setbacks from internal boundaries

- a. The extent to which the reduced setback will detract from rural character and amenity values when viewed from neighbouring sites.
- b. The extent to which the topography location, design and appearance of the building mitigates the visual effects of the reduced setback.
- c. The extent to which the reduced setback is to facilitate practical use of the building or day to day management of the site, including the need to align with existing buildings in the vicinity and their associated use.
- d. The need for the reduced setback to allow more efficient or practical use of the remainder of the site or the long term protection of significant trees, listed heritage buildings or natural features on the site.

17.8.1.5 Separation distances

The Proposed Christchurch Replacement District Plan

- a. Whether a reduced separation distance will provide adequate separation between nearby residents and intensive farming activities, plantation forestry and quarrying activities to enable continuation of activities taking into account:
  - i. how the proposal promotes best practice in terms of any industry guidelines;
  - ii. the extent to which a reduced separation distance will adversely impact on adjoining rural and residential activities including potential loss of views, visual impact, odour, noise and shading;
  - iii. the extent to which topography, natural features or existing vegetation reduces the effect of any reduced separation distance or makes it difficult to achieve compliance with the setback; and
  - iv. the necessity to have an appropriate legal instrument registered on the title for the residential activity to enable continued operation of the intensive farming or quarrying activity unhindered.

17.8.1.6 Site coverage and building footprint

- a. Whether the increase in site coverage or building footprint will result in a building scale and size that maintains rural character and amenity values and enables the site to remain dominated by open space rather than buildings, hard surfaces and outdoor storage taking into account:
  - i. the extent to which the topography and the location, scale, design and appearance of the building, landscaping or natural features mitigate the visual effects of increased site coverage or the size of the building;
  - ii. if any alternative siting has been considered or is available on the site that would mitigate any visual effects of the increased site coverage or the size of the building;
  - iii. the extent to which increased site coverage or the size of the building will diminish the productive potential of the land, the soil pattern or make it difficult for quarrying activities to establish or operate in the vicinity; and
  - iv. the extent to which increased site coverage will adversely affect groundwater and flood management areas.

17.8.1.7 Traffic generation and access

- a. The extent to which any additional traffic generation will:
  - i. adversely affect rural character and amenity values and/or safety and efficient functioning of the road network; and
  - ii. result in any adverse effects in terms of noise, vibration, dust, nuisance, glare and fumes that are incompatible with the amenity values on residents in the vicinity and local rural environment.
- b. Whether the location, design and use of access will adversely affect rural character and amenity values and/or safety and efficient functioning of the road network.

17.8.1.8 Identified building area

- a. The extent to which there is a need for the residential unit to be located outside of the identified building area or the area to be moved.
- b. Whether moving the identified building area will result in any adverse visual effects on landscape values or surrounding rural character and any measures to mitigate these.

17.8.1.9 Building reflectivity - Rural Banks Peninsula

Placeholder for Matter of Discretion for building reflectivity. This provision will be notified and open for submissions as part of Stage 3.

17.8.1.10 Important identified ridgelines - Rural Banks Peninsula

Placeholder for Matter of Discretion for identified important ridgelines. This provision will be notified and open for submissions

The Proposed Christchurch Replacement District Plan

as part of Stage 3.

17.8.2 Matters of Discretion for Activity Specific Standards

17.8.2.1 Scale of activity

- a. The extent to which the scale of the operation and building/s are compatible with, and maintain, rural character and amenity values of the surrounding area, including any relevant Built Form Standards.
- b. The extent to which the site will remain dominated by rural activities and the relationship with the scale of the activity remaining ancillary, the degree to which the activity is connected to or dependent upon the rural environment, its functional need to locate in the rural environment.
- c. Whether the proposed hours of operation are compatible with the local rural environment.
- d. The extent to which the site layout and building design will mitigate effects including noise, lighting and traffic.
- e. The need for the additional employment as an integral and necessary part of activities being undertaken on the site and its assistance in providing alternative home-based employment and income-generating opportunities.
- f. The extent to which the scale of the activity will cause demands for the uneconomic or premature upgrading or extension of public services, including roading, which are not in the interests of the district or locality.
- g. Whether the activity will protect, restore or enhance any natural feature, indigenous vegetation or landscapes and the need for any legal instruments or management plans to protect such values.

17.8.2.2 Minor residential unit

- a. Whether the minor residential unit would remain ancillary to the main residential unit and maintain rural character taking into account:
  - i. the scale and location of the minor residential unit in relation to the main residential unit;
  - ii. the necessity to have a separate vehicle access and car parking for the family flat; and
  - iii. the necessity of an appropriate legal instrument to prevent subdivision that would create a separate title for the minor residential unit from the main residential unit.

17.8.2.3 Rural-related activities

- a. The extent to which the proposal promotes best practice in terms of any recognised industry standards, including taking into account:
  - i. the number and type of animals;
  - ii. building design, including soundproofing and ventilation;
  - iii. effluent management and disposal;
  - iv. prevailing climatic conditions and topography of the site and surrounding area that may affect odour and noise generation;
  - v. existing and proposed landscaping; and
  - vi. the frequency and nature of management and supervision.
- b. The extent to which the scale of the operation and location of associated building/s maintain rural character and amenity values, including relevant zone Built Form Standards.
- c. The extent to which buildings, compounds or part of a site used for animals are sufficiently designed and located or separated from residential activities, identified building area and residential zone boundaries to avoid adverse effects on residents.
- d. The effects of the hours of operation and public visiting the site on the surrounding environment.

17.8.2.4 Plantation forestry

- a. Whether the plantation forestry promotes best practice in terms of any recognised industry standards or guidelines and any management plan for the operation.
- b. The effects of the plantation forestry on rural character and amenity taking into account:
  - i. the scale and extent of the proposed forestry and any cumulative effects taking into account existing forestry in the vicinity;

The Proposed Christchurch Replacement District Plan

Appendix 17.9.2 Templeton ODP

The Templeton ODP seeks to guide subdivision and development of the site, particularly with regard to stormwater management, landscaping and buffers, and the internal road network. The diagram also shows the Rural Templeton Business

The Proposed Christchurch Replacement District Plan

1, 2 and Facilities Precincts.

1. Stormwater:

- a. The site has been assessed as being suitable for on-site stormwater management. Each allotment will have individual on-site stormwater management systems in line with the requirements outlined below, and there will be communal stormwater management to handle stormwater from the public realm. The communal system will include a contingency amount for unusually heavy rainfall events. Rule 17.7.3.9 stormwater ponding areas and waterbodies include design criteria for the system.
- b. The diagram shows a stormwater management area in the north of the site, in an existing natural swale, but communal detention and management will need to occur elsewhere within the site also. The transmission corridor mid-site provides an opportunity for this.

2. Landscaping and the 20m buffer:

- a. The Templeton ODP shows a 20m buffer on the perimeter of the Rural Templeton Zone. This is designed to protect adjoining landowners from adverse effects, and vice versa. The zone is adjoined by the Brackenridge Residential Estate, Nova Trust Rehabilitation Centre, Waitaha Learning Centre, a chapel, and farmland, making it particularly important to manage adverse effects. The buffer should not contain hard stand, outdoor storage or buildings. It may count towards the landscaping component.
- b. The existing shelterbelt is largely within the buffer and is to be retained and maintained. It is an integral part of the buffering effect and is also important for the retention of rural character and visual amenity at the site.
- c. The site also contains numerous established trees, identified through previous subdivision. The rules provide that 80 trees must be selected for retention. The shelterbelt and any other tree within the buffer cannot be included in the list of 80 trees.
- d. Any fencing at the site should be uniform and typical of the rural area.

The Proposed Christchurch Replacement District Plan

3. Road network:

- a. The diagram shows access and egress points from the site to Kirk and Maddisons Roads. The final internal road layout is dependent on various factors and the developer is afforded the flexibility to reflect this. The developer will need to consider the re-use of the existing internal road network and the relocation of a large private sewer line which traverses the site (serving the prison and other land) amongst other things.
- b. The internal roadway will include footpath/cycleway provision, landscaping, underground services (where appropriate) and stormwater management facilities. Provision shall also be made for a bus stop, even if just making space available to create a bus stop if the service to the hospital and prison is restored.
- c. Internal roads shall also be designed in accordance with Council requirements and should have a clear hierarchy and layout.
